The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a pamphlet volume, in order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore more readily and intelligently act upon its points, and also be sufficient to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The guiding design of the Bankrupt Law is to distribute assets, and not to punish debtors, whose misfortunes are great and who can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must own at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitions under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also a inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have any interest, though not in possession, in conformity with certain "forms" prescribed in the General Orders of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oaths of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or a Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found, pending the proceedings, at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any act or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be united.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to the Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and choose one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to oppose the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against, is a fixed date, from which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the character of things passes away and a new set begins to run over. On this point decisions have been various. The safe rule appears to be, that the appointed Assignee of a bankrupt has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made over by application, by his persons executors, or any person to any time within the month previous to or up to the period of his discharge.

9. No Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, unless in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts to be proved against the estate, at any time after the expiration of six months.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Register or Messenger will convey to him, or send a certificate of the bankrupt's proceedings, and a statement of the bankrupt's property, specifying what is exempted, viz: "Household goods and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value (300) five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process, by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same, with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 40 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court upon application, an order will be made requiring the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. It, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exemption, and that leaving just enough to pay the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to no fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are notorious, in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In complex cases more, in others less. The cost depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. But cases of opinion among Attorneys have arisen in this State, as to the limit which the Act intends as to the time for application in bankruptcy, some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he be able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for this purpose for which it was enacted until March 2d, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time to all honest debtors, whatever may be the amount of their indebtedness, to compromise or pay to what is required from them. After the 1st of June next, every honest debtor will be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, and be a successful applicant in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra charges is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical assistance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR PATRONIZERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.

2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.

3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.

4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.

5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.

6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.

7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.

8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.

9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is never deducted from the face of the policy.

10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

Phœnix Mutual	$1 74
Ætna	1 31
Brooklyn	1 12
Connecticut Mutual	1 65
Equitable	1 94
Manhattan	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States. Its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

ODIOUS TAX LAW.

The Convention, to pay its expenses of $80,000—$8 per day to negroes and scallawags; $866 to each delegate on an average,—levied a tax on all the real and personal property in the State, and Gen. Canby has ordered it to be enforced.

Here we have the poor man's horse, the widow's cow, the baby's cradle, all taxed to PAY NEGROES, and others, $8 per day.—They were in such a hurry to get their money, that they forgot to exempt anything—the meanest tax law ever made.

THE X. P. G. DISCOURAGED.—We hear it stated that the X. P. G. is not pleased with the canvass, so far. Things are not as he would have them. His trip below was very unsatisfactory. Beaufort, Newbern, Kinston and Goldsboro' did not turn out as he expected.

We further learn that when he started for Charlotte, he claimed his election by 50,000 majority! After visiting Charlotte, Salisbury, Lexington and High Point, he claims only 15,000, it is said!

At Lexington, we understand, that intrepid and eloquent Conservative, Wm. M. Robbins, Esq., was given a chance to reply. If so, we feel sure there was little left of the X. P. G. or of Captain Settle.

OLD NASH AROUSED.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of Nash was held at Nashville, on Tuesday last. N. M. Cooper, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Dr. A. P. Ricks was appointed Secretary.

Appropriate resolutions were adopted, and telling speeches were made by Hon. Asa Biggs, Hon. S. H. Rogers, Col. Wharton J. Green, Capt. J. J. Davis and Samuel T. Williams, Esq. The Conservatives were to hold another meeting, on Saturday last, for the nomination of candidates.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

No. 2.

SOLID OBJECTIONS TO THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION.

LET ALL MEN READ AND CONSIDER THEM WELL!

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA:

The proposed Constitution provides for and establishes the civil, political and social equality of the white and negro races.

The most fearful, and, it now appears, the well founded apprehension of the white people of this State, and of the whole South, has been, that there was, and still is, a settled and persistent purpose of the Radical Republican party to force and fasten upon the white people that horror of horrors, the POLITICAL and SOCIAL equality of the white and negro races. Whatever may be said to the contrary by interested, unprincipled and designing men, this purpose is openly manifested in this proposed ORGANIC LAW, this CONSTITUTION, which these reckless Radicals propose to our people for popular ratification; and by this means, they propose to make this odious, degrading, degenerating, desolating and terribly horrible purpose enduring, unalterably and perpetually operative.

This is not empty declamation, nor is it political badinage; on the contrary, it is truth of the most solemn import, and challenges the present and serious consideration of every white man in the land.

Let us examine, briefly, the provisions of this new Constitution, and see if these declarations are true:

The principle of ABSOLUTE EQUALITY permeates and pervades it. The very first Section of the Declaration of Rights (see it) provides "that we hold it to be self-evident that all men are created equal." This is strong, plain language; it asserts absolute equality in all things; not, indeed, as declared in the old Declaration of Independence, for the provision in that instrument had no reference to the NEGRO RACE, as is shown by the Constitutions of the United States and of the several States, and the whole legislation of the Federal and State Governments. The provision in the Declaration of Independence was made in view of, and had direct reference to, the distinctions among white men, under the Constitution and laws of Great Britain. But we are not left to the plain import of the language used by these Radicals, above quoted. This same idea and provision of absolute equality runs through every clause of this Constitution. It provides, in Sec. 1, Article 6, (see it,) "EVERY MALE PERSON born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years old and upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed an elector." This provision is absolute and without limitation; it includes WHITES and NEGROES, and all races and colors, and it defines the VOTING, RULING population of the State; those embraced by this clause are emphatically the PEOPLE, and neither CRIME nor any other cause disqualifies a person from VOTING. Sec. 4 of this same Article (see it,) provides, "Every voter, except as hereinafter provided, shall BE ELIGIBLE TO OFFICE." Thus, it will be seen, that a NEGRO may VOTE and may hold ANY OFFICE under this Constitution; he may exercise any office or right that a white man may; in every clause of this Constitution he is made the EXACT EQUAL of the white man; he is eligible to be made Governor, Chief Justice, Judge, Legislator, Congressman, and to fill any office, high or low.

But this equality of right and privilege is not confined to the males and to voting and holding office; it applies to all conceivable things and persons, taking benefit under this Constitution; it applies to women and children and all people; it is universal in its spirit and compass. By virtue of this leading principle in the Constitution, as a matter of law, a negro cannot by possibility be excluded from occupying any place in a public church, public school, public hotel, or assemblage; he or she may claim, under this vital principle of the Constitution, the right to intermarry with a white person, to be educated at the University of the State or in any public school, without reference to any action of the Legislature, acting under this Constitution; any act of such Legislature, abridging the right of the negro in such matters as these, would be utterly null and void, for such act would violate Constitutional right. If, under this Constitution, the Legislature were to provide that whites and blacks shall not intermarry, such act of the Legislature would be void. If it were to provide that a negro should not be educated at the University of the State, or that negro children should not go to the public schools where white children go, such act would be void; even if it were to provide separate public schools for whites and blacks, then a negro would have the right to go to the white school, and all this grows out of the vital principle of absolute equality incorporated into every clause of this "Constitution."

The Constitution was the only place, and the proper place, to provide for such distinctions and limitations between the races. The Legislature, for the reasons already stated, cannot provide for them, and the radical and vindictive framers of the Constitution did not intend to provide for them. It was pressed upon them to do so, but they refused by solemn vote on all occasions. It was proposed to provide that whites and blacks should not intermarry; that whites and blacks should not go to the same schools; that whites and blacks should not muster in the same companies, and that black officers should not command the white militia; that poor white children should not be bound to negroes; that marriages between whites and blacks should remain void; but these Radicals always voted down such propositions and treated them with derision and contempt. This they did, well knowing that the Legislature could not provide for such distinctions. They did this, on purpose to tie the hands of the white man; they knew what they were about, for they had legal counsel in Washington, if they had none in the Convention, whom they could, and no doubt did, consult.

Then there is civil and political equality, beyond cavil or question.

But is this a matter of importance? It is of incalculable importance. There are 70,000 negro voters in the State, and they vote almost as one man; they hold the balance of power; indeed, THEY WILL RULE. In many of the counties they can and will elect every officer; if they do not do so now, they will, just as soon as their power is established under this Constitution, and now they uniformly elect white men meaner and lower in the scale of decency and respectability than themselves. They can, in many counties, elect the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners, Clerks, Sheriffs, Registers, and all other officers; they can impose such taxes as they please; they WILL RULE! Does any body doubt that they will, if this Constitution is established? They give the sole encouragement to the Radicals; they BOAST that they start with 70,000 NEGRO votes; they could not have a shadow of hope without them; the hope is, they may be able to SEDUCE and CORRUPT 16,000 white men!

Social equality, in a government like ours, is a sequent of political equality; it springs from constant and unrestrained recognition of perfect equality of right and privilege. It follows political equality as night follows the day, and thus the Constitution, that establishes the former, as certainly establishes the latter. Can anybody doubt, that if children, white and black, are sent to the same school; that if whites and blacks board at the same hotel and eat promiscuously at the same table; sit in the same seats at church, travel in the same cars, sit in the same jury box, a SOCIAL feeling, by and by, will spring up, that such sociability will grow, until, at last, it will become common, and then the evil, the ruin, will be complete! If we make negro Governors, Judges, Legislators, Congressmen, and officials of all kinds, can any one say, this will not give such officers and their families, more or less, SOCIAL position with all classes, if not at once, by and by? It leads directly to this; the consequence is inevitable! In the baneful effects of the POLITICAL equality forced upon us by the sword, under the legislation of Congress, the present Radical candidate for Governor, W. W. Holden, did not hesitate, it is charged, to walk down Fayetteville Street, in this city, with the negro Galloway, from Wilmington, and to drink with him; the President of the late Convention, Calvin J. Cowles, did not hesitate, it is charged, to go to a Restaurant in the City of Raleigh, and order supper for himself and several negro delegates to the Convention, and to eat and drink with them. Northern men in the Convention, claiming to be gentlemen, openly associate with these negroes, receive them into their rooms at the Hotels and confer, and consult, and jest, and converse with them, just as they would do with the most accomplished white man! Many white men in this State, (always Radicals,) have already intermarried with negro women; there is a noted instance of this in Fayetteville, where a man of property, and respectably connected, defying the feelings of his friends, the laws of the State and common decency, by virtue of a "military order," married a negro woman and lives with her, in his own house, openly, as his wife! This is one of the cases the Radical Convention ratified by express ordinance.

All this is but the beginning. Pass this Constitution, and no one can conceive of the horrible end! Pass it and the hands of the people will be fast tied,—they will be helpless and hopeless! Consider these truths, white men, everywhere, and rush to the ballot box, and, as you love your lives, and your wives and children, VOTE AGAINST THIS INFAMOUS CONSTITUTION!

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The Convention of delegates from the counties composing this District was held in Goldsboro', on Friday. We learn that Col. Thomas S. Kenan, of Duplin, was nominated for Congress. This is a capital selection. Col. Kenan is a gentleman of fine ability, with an excellent record, personally and politically, and he will make an efficient canvass. Hons. M. E. Manly and George Howard were appointed delegates for the District to the National Democratic Convention, and Messrs. W. S. Battle, of Edgecombe, and Samuel Radcliff, of Craven, Alternates.

P. S. Since the foregoing was written, we have seen the proceedings of the Convention. Col. Hall, the Conservative candidate for Lieutenant Governor, being in town, was waited upon and addressed the Convention in an admirable speech, which was received with great applause.

The Judicial District Convention was held the same day and nominated Alex. Justice, Esq., of Craven, for Solicitor.

CANVASSERS.—The following additional appointments are announced:

Hyde.—Reuben Benson, Geo V Credle.

Tyrrell.—Chas McClees, Dr E Ransom, L L Hassell, Capt Thos J Jarvis and Thos E Pender.

The lists are now complete for some seventy-five counties, all of which appear on the fourth page of the Daily Sentinel. They will be transferred, next week, for the public information, to our Weekly and Semi-Weekly issues.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE TO HAVE POWER OF IMPRISONMENT.—Under the proposed Radical Constitution, Art. IX, Sec. 33, Justices of the Peace can try criminal cases and fine and imprison those convicted.—Six men are to be the jury.

What a field for the oppression of ignorant men is here afforded!

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

THE VOTE upon the new Constitution will be taken the 21st., 22nd. and 23d. of April. Be sure and VOTE AGAINST IT.

THE NIGGER CANDIDATES vs. THE NEGRO.

W. W. Holden is the negro candidate for Governor. He declared that his object in aiming to stop the war was to "SAVE SLAVERY." He has declared, since the war, that opposition to negro suffrage was the most conspicuous of "Union landmarks." He tried, during the war, it is said, to put his negroes into money.

D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston, is the negro candidate for Public Treasurer. He was a notorious slave-driver and negro-trader, and is charged with having HUNG A NEGRO WOMAN by the neck until she was dead.

Samuel W. Watts, of Martin, is the negro candidate for Judge in the Sixth District.—He was in Franklin county, during the war, hunting fugitive negroes WITH DOGS.

Jno. V. Sherard, of Wayne, is the negro candidate for Solicitor in that District.—Col. Jenkins states, in his public speeches, that, when he was Attorney General, he prosecuted Sherard, in Johnston Superior Court, for WHIPPING AN OLD NEGRO MAN TO DEATH, and convicted him of MANSLAUGHTER.

LETTER FROM COL. J. P. H. RUSS.

Fellow-Citizens of the County of Wake:

It is with deep regret that I am compelled to decline the nomination tendered me as a candidate for the Legislature, under such flattering circumstances, at your late meeting on the 5th inst.

In addition to the reasons which I then gave you for not accepting, and which I might possibly overcome, I am warned by continued ill health, that I have not the physical ability to take such part in the canvass of the county as I should deem it my duty to do under the perilous circumstances with which we are surrounded. I am also advised that such action would seriously endanger my life. And while there is no pecuniary sacrifice which I would not cheerfully make to attain the success which we desire, and which I confidently believe is easily attainable under proper effort, yet there are claims of others upon me which cannot be disregarded.

Being compelled for these reasons to decline your nomination, let me assure you that my heart is fully in the great cause, and that I will aid, to the full extent of any power which I may possess, to elect the candidates of your selection, and, what is much more important, to defeat the new Constitution—the offspring of tyranny and injustice of white "scallawags" from every where and negro "scallawags" from no where.

These are no ordinary times. The most important issues are now presented to our people. Liberty—all that renders life valuable or gives it hope—is at stake. Let every man be up and do his duty, and the country is yet safe. With such a cause, failure is impossible, unless we basely surrender.

Very respectfully and gratefully yours,
JOHN P. H. RUSS.

March 20, 1868.

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGE BARNES.

The following excellent letter has been received from Hon. D. A. Barnes, the Conservative nominee for Judge in the First District:

ROCKINGHAM, N. C., March 17th.

R. C. Badger, Esq.,

MY DEAR SIR:—Your letter informing me of my nomination, by the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party, for the office of Judge of the First Judicial District, was received a few days since.

I thank the Committee for this endorsement of my official conduct and accept the nomination tendered me.

I have through life cherished a sincere devotion for the people of North Carolina, and entertained the most profound respect and reverence for her wise system of jurisprudence and the spotless integrity of her Judges. Every citizen of the State has reason to be proud of its judicial history, adorned and illustrated, as it has been, by Gaston, Badger, Taylor, Henderson, Daniel, Pearson, Ruffin, Nash, and a host of others. Since I have been honored with a seat upon the bench, I have kept steadily in view the bright example of these illustrious men, and have endeavored to administer the rules of law and equity which they have enunciated. If the people, in the approaching election, shall continue me in this high office, I shall act in the future as in the past. I will administer the law faithfully, industriously and impartially, without fear, favor or political bias.

But whatever may be the result to me personally, I invoke upon the people of the State, as among the greatest of temporal blessings, a continuance of that "gladsome light of jurisprudence," under the impartial administration of which, in days past, they were so happy and contented.

Yours very respectfully,
DAVID A. BARNES.

IMPUDENCE.—The negroes and scallawags of New Hanover met in Wilmington, on Thursday, for the purpose of nominating county and city officers. Appreciating the deficiency of decent material in their own midst, the disreputable whites in the meeting sought, in their sore emergency, to associate with themselves the names of some of the most highly-esteemed citizens of Wilmington. They had the impudence to nominate Bishop Atkinson as one of their candidates for School Commissioners, which elicited from that good and great man the subjoined admirable letter, which we find in the Wilmington Journal:

WILMINGTON, March 19, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Among the nominations made by the Convention of the Republican party, which met in this city on yesterday, I observe my name on the list of candidates for the office of School Commissioner. As I was not consulted on the subject, I had no opportunity of refusing my consent; and as my silence now might lead some persons at a distance to imagine that I believe the welfare of the State likely to be promoted by the success of that party, which is exactly contrary to the opinion I actually hold, I feel it my duty in this public manner to decline the nomination.

THOMAS ATKINSON.

CHATHAM.—A correspondent, writing us from this county, says:

"The people of this District (Edwards') were addressed, on Saturday last, by Henry A. London, Jr., since which time quite a change is visible among the people, many of whom formerly voted the negro ticket. They are now pledging themselves against negro supremacy and for a white man's government. All that the people need in this vicinity is information, and an ample supply of such papers as the Sentinel."

From the Independent Press, (Concord.)

GRAND CONSERVATIVE MASS MEETING!!

GREAT ENTHUSIASM!!

PEOPLE FULLY AROUSED!!!

On last Saturday, according to previous announcement, a grand Conservative meeting, irrespective of former political creeds or opinions, was held in the Court House.—We have witnessed many meetings before, during and since the war, and, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, we have never seen the Court House so completely packed as it was on this occasion—indeed, great numbers could not gain admittance, and the doors, windows and porch were literally jammed—persons from every portion of the county, and a great many from Stanly, Union, Mecklenburg and Rowan counties.

The meeting was organized by Dr. Cyrus A. Alexander taking the Chair, and R. S. Harris as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by Col. Long, after which a Committee was appointed to conduct to the Court House, who was introduced by the Chair, to the meeting, amid deafening applause. The Governor told the people that he took great pleasure in appearing before them; that it was the greatest pleasure of his life to talk to and be with the people of the Old North State. He said that he came before them, not to seek their suffrages, but to implore them to beg of the people, in the name of their ancestors, in the name of all they held near and dear to them, to vote down, reject, make null and void the damnable Constitution that would soon be submitted to them.

GOV. Z. B. VANCE

We have heard the Governor on many occasions, but his effort last Saturday was certainly, without doubt, far ahead of anything we ever heard from him.

After explaining, in the most forcible manner, the different portions of the Constitution (so-called) that related most seriously to the white men of North Carolina, he ventilated the Black Republican candidates. Well, he "everlastingly skinned 'em." He dissected every one of them, and related nothing but truths—he did not deal in fancy sketches, but laid open the naked truth. He commenced with X. P. G. Holden—he said it was not necessary to go into an expose of him; that every man, woman, child and negro in North Carolina knew him; that the bare mention of his name suggested trickery, rascality, low down meanness and everything else that honest men hated and spurned; he said that it was impossible to do him justice, that his political course had been filled with such gross inconsistencies, that he had changed so often, and always on the side where the most money was; that he did not consider him worthy of his steel, and then took up

TOD R. CALDWELL.

Zeb. proved that Caldwell was the most rampant secesh that ever lived, but did not go in for much fight himself—got everybody else in and stayed home himself. He then photographed of Rutherford. His picture of Cebe was life like, and put up in good shape. After which painting took he up and showed him to be one of the worst men in the country, and from the Governor's account of Rodman's conduct toward a respectable young (poor white) girl, Rodman certainly ought to be despised by all honest, virtuous men and women in the State.

* * * * * * * * *

of Gaston, then took a sitting. The Governor showed David up most beautifully.—He (David) makes, now, great pretensions towards the colored brethren; proposes to love them nearly as well as he did when he used to take them off in gangs to Mississippi and Alabama, when he used to separate man and wife, father and mother, parents and children—he loved them then, because they put money in his pocket; he loves them now, because they can vote. He charged David with the wilful, deliberate murder of a negro woman during the war, by hanging her by the neck until she was DEAD! He said there ought to be a bill brought before the Grand Jury, at the next term, against him for MURDER! The Governor did not mention, in this connection, anything about a certain March wind blowing away a hundred dollar bill—he certainly forgot that.

J. W. BOWMAN,

next took a "posish" in front of Zeb's camera. His picture was done up in good style, oval frame, cheap also.

RILEY CANNON,

then was examined. He was found proficient in everything that was mean and low-down but was a poor speller—he spelled constitution with a K, January with a G, and chicken with a capital C in the middle. He was then framed and hung up for inspection.

WILLIAM M. COLEMAN,

recently from Cabarrus, but now hails from Wake, was then introduced. The Governor said that as Coleman was originally from this county, he would not mention him; that the people knew him well enough. (Cries from all parts of the house, "Go on, go on; tell us all about it.") The Governor said, "No, you all know him." He then took up "Dead Head"

STARBUCK.

He tore all the hide from him—exposed his political deformities—showed him to be a forsworn man.

CAPE COD ASHLEY,

Praise-God Bare-Bones, then suffered from the Governor's hands. He could not say anything too mean of such "carpet-baggers," who had come South to fatten on the toil and labor of honest men.

The EIGHT DOLLARS A-DAY men were then handled without gloves. He compared the Convention of 1835 to that of 1868, in point of dollars and cents—the Convention of '35 cost the State $10,000, while that of '68 cost $100,000!! In point of intelligence, THEN such men as Gaston, Macon, Morehead, Swain, Melchor, D. M. Barringer, and a host of bright and shining lights, had the ship of State in charge; now such scalawags as Rodman, Blume, Ashley, (and other Cape Codders,) Jim Harris, (nigger,) et id omne genus, guided the craft, and she soon would be on the road to total destruction, unless the Conservative element of the State took the helm in hand.

We did not hear one single objection made to the speech. It was filled with good sense, sound reasoning, burning eloquence, cutting sarcasm and pointed wit. The Governor was listened to for two and a half hours with marked attention—the drop of a pin could have been heard. The negroes (and there were a goodly number in attendance) paid close attention to the speech, and we heard one old colored individual declare that he had heard more "good truth" in that short speech, than he had in all the league meetings, and from them he intended to "turdraw;" that he "lowed to jine the 'Sarvative party, jist akase dey had de most respunkitible men in dem—dat he war tired hearin' all dis talk 'bout nigger bein' as good as a white man, 'twas no sich of a thing—de white folks what was anybody had hoped him more'n all de leaguers put up in a bunch. Any white man what would put hesself on a 'quality wid de nigger, was worse dan de blackest nigger in de kountry." At the close of the speech the Governor thanked the audience for the kind manner in which they had always treated him, and told them to rally around a WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT—defeat the Constitution, beat Holden and his infamous crowd, and the State would be saved. He retired amid thundering applause.

In Wilmington last week twenty-eight shares of the Capital Stock of the Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road Company were sold at $35.00 per share.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, MARCH 23, 1868.

FOR CONGRESS.

SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS,

OF GRANVILLE.

Mass Meetings.

The State Executive Committee recommend the holding of Conservative Mass Meetings at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Tuesday,	April	7
Greensboro',	"	"	7
Goldsboro',	Thursday,	"	9
Salisbury,	"	"	9
Statesville,	Friday,	"	10
Wilmington,	Saturday,	"	11

Messrs. DOOLITTLE, HENDRICKS and others of U. S. Senate, and Messrs. BROOKS, ERRIDGE and others of the House, have been invited to attend these meetings, and they are expected to come. It will be seen that the meetings are crowded, for the reason that these gentlemen can remain in the State but a few days.

Our friends in those places are requested to make the necessary arrangements for holding these meetings and further publication, &c. Popular speakers in this State are also expected to be present. Rally Conservatives!

SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS, ESQ.—This gentleman, the Conservative nominee for Congress in this District, will address the citizens of Franklin, in Louisburg, on Tuesday of April Court.

COL. W. L. STEELE and Maj. J. A. Engelhard will address the people of Bladen, at Bladenboro,' on the 26th., and of Columbus, at Whiteville, on the 27th.

GRAND PANORAMA OF BEAUTIFUL PAINTINGS FOR THE EDUCATION OF ORPHAN CHILDREN.—Photographic copies of the great Masters, beautifully colored and illuminated by the celebrated Drummond Light, in Tucker Hall, on Monday and Tuesday nights, 23rd. and 24th. inst.

The proceeds are to be exclusively appropriated to clothing and educating orphan children. Mr. G. C. Conner, of Atlanta, has charge of a Mission Sunday and Industrial School, composed of over 300 children, 163 of whom are the ophans of Confederate Soldiers.

He proposes to give one half of the proceeds to the education of the poor children of Raleigh.

Mr. Conner gave two exhibitions in Richmond last week, and we learn that over 700 were present, the first night, and more than 100 went away unable to get in the second night.

COL. RUSS DECLINES.—We publish with regret, in another column, the Card of Col. Russ to the people of Wake, declining to be a candidate for the Commons. The health of Col. Russ, for three months, has been bad. On this account, he was very unwilling, at first, to allow the use of his name for the canvass. Since his nomination, his health has been more feeble,—so much so that his friends are satisfied that it would be decidedly imprudent for him to attempt to go through the canvass. For this reason, he reluctantly declines the duty imposed on him by his fellow citizens. We hope that his place will be filled, at an early day.

LIBEL SUIT.—Messrs. Hearne and Lee, late of the North Carolinian, (Msj. Dunham being absent from the City,) were arrested under writ for libel, on Saturday, sued out by R. W. King, Collector of the Port of Newbern, and delegate to the recent Mongrel Convertion from Lenoir, who lays his damages at $10,000. Bail was, of course, immediately given, in the sum of $20,000—Messrs. W. R. Cox and H. C. Pool becoming sureties.

COL. E. D. HALL spoke in Newbern on Saturday night.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Pure Peruvian Guano, Reese's Soluble Pacific Guano, Ground Nova Scotia Plaster, at reduced prices; J. R. & P. A. Dunn, Fayetteville, and A. M. McPheeters, Raleigh.

Cushings & Bailey: Wholesale Booksellers and Stationers, No. 262 Baltimore St., opposite Hanover, Baltimore. This is a commanding and responsible Firm, which we take pleasure in endorsing.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Isabella Norris, Sarah Campbell and Hawkins Bowen, charged with stealing planks from the fence of J. J. Ferrell, were returned to the Superior Court.

Lewis Walker, colored, charged with making an assault upon Henry Mordecai, was returned to the Superior Court.

Lewis Walker, colored, charged with stealing corn from Henry Mordecai, was returned to the Superior Court.

J. W. Harris and W. F. Thomason, charged with selling spirituous liquors, contrary to an ordinance of the city, in three cases, were fined $20 each.

"THE NORTH CAROLINIAN."—Our spirited and able cotemporary, the "Carolinian," of this City, has been discontinued. Mr. Hearne, the Proprietor, announces that the derangement of his private affairs, unconnected with the newspaper business, has caused the suspension. The event was totally unlooked for, and "against such a contingency no human foresight could have provided."

We part with our excellent friends of the "Carolinian" with regret. They have given the public a sprightly, efficient, LIVE newspaper, and had justly won much popularity as fearless journalists. Wherever destiny may carry them, we wish them, one and all,—Hearne, Dunham and Lee,—all imaginable prosperity and success. They deserve it, and may they command it!

"THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME."—We make our grateful acknowledgments to W. S. Carter, Esq., of Fairfield, Hyde, for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel.

G. W. F. Harper, Esq., of Caldwell, sends us two clubs.

Wm. A. Duncan and I. J. Edwards, of Chatham, send us a club.

And W. L. Londos, of Chatham, sends us a club of forty for the Weekly.

We thank our friends heartily for these favors. To say nothing of the cheering appreciation of our own labors, it is one of the healthiest signs of the uprising of the people, that they are clamoring for information on the great issues of the hour.

CAPT. ROBINSON.—A writer in the Fayetteville News nominates Capt. Benj. Robinson, as a suitable candidate for Solicitor of the Fifth Judicial District.

WE ARE PAINED to learn that our old friend, Turner Westray, Esq., formerly of Nash, died suddenly, on the cars, near Battleboro, a few days ago. He was a most excellent citizen.

CHARLOTTE TIMES.—R. P. Waring, Esq., has revived this Daily, (and the Weekly News in connection therewith.) The first number of the new series is before us. It is handsomely printed and will be conducted with energy and ability. We welcome our friend back to the Corps, and wish him God speed!

WAKE FOREST College has had 116 graduates. Many of these are ministers, teachers, lawyers, physicians, editors, farmers, &c.

JOS. JNO. WILLIAMS, Esq., of Leon Co., Florida, (a native of this city and step-son of the late Hon. Geo. E. Badger,) is spoken of as the Conservative candidate for Governor of that State.

LET US HAVE at least weekly meetings of our City White Men's Club, and let the ladies be particularly invited to attend.—Their presence and smiles, in this hour of danger and duty, will be encouraging and auspicious. They are ALL with us.

THE HOLDEN RECORD.—A gentleman, who was in the House of Representatives, a few days since, informs us that he saw, upon the desk of each and every member, a copy of Helper's "Holden Record." It is said to have knocked [illegible] in the head all prospect of the re[illegible] the unfortunate X. P. G's "Sta[illegible]."

NO TAX FOR VOTERS.—A correspondent desires to know if voters are obliged to pay a poll tax. No tax is required of any voter, under the Reconstruction Acts, as a condition of voting.

THEN.

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"
—W. W. Holden, June 5th, 1861.

NOW.

"Our beloved State will once more put on the garments of prosperity; and our people will be contented and happy through the long ages reserved for the existence of the government which Washington established, and which LINCOLN labored and died to preserve!

Fraternally yours,
W. W. HOLDEN, President.
JAS. H. HARRIS, 1st Vice Pres.
A. H. JONES, 2nd Vice Pres.
B. W. HORNER, Sec'y."

(Closing sentence of the address to the U. L. A. in N. B. January, 31, 1868.)

JUDICIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The undersigned Committee, to provide for holding a Convention of the counties of the proposed First Judicial District, to wit: Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, and Currituck, to nominate a Conservative candidate for the office of Solicitor, appoint Tuesday, the 6th day of April next, as the time, and Edenton as the place, for holding the same, and do earnestly recommend action in the several counties in order to their being represented therein.

W. N. H. SMITH, M. L. EURE, } Committee.

March 14th., 1868.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The delegates to nominate a white Solicitor, for the 7th. Judicial District, will meet at Greensboro, on Wednesday, the 25th. March—being the same time and place for the holding of the Congressional Convention of the 5th. Congressional District.

HENRY A. LONDON, Jr. LIVINGSTON BROWN, J. T. MORREHEAD, Jr. } Committee.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

THE GREAT and paramount issue is SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

The Cincinnati Enquirer suggests that, in case Mr. Johnson is removed from the White House by impeachment, he will still remain Vice President.

Mrs. Sallie Harris, living at Cedar Bluff, Cherokee county, is the oldest person now living in Alabama. She is one hundred and thirty years old. She is a native of Edgecombe county.

SPIRITED CARD FROM THE WIFE OF AN EDITOR.

Col. Gallaway, editor of the Memphis Avalanche, having been committed to prison by William Hunter, Judge of the Criminal Court of Memphis, on a charge of contempt, his wife assumes, in the following card, the editorial charge and conduct of that excellent paper:

"Twenty six years ago, I gave my girlish heart to the husband whose name I proudly own. We have lived through adversity and prosperity, but in whatever condition our lots have been cast calumny has never dared to assail my husband's name. Notwithstanding this fact, he was yesterday torn from his little family and is now a prisoner in the county jail; but, thank God, he is a prisoner without a crime. He has been torn from his home for the offence of exercising the rights which are his by the laws of the land. To a free country a free press is as indispensable as light is to-day. It is, in fact, the sun of the social and political system, from which emanate the healthy influences which produce vitality, strength and fertility. For exercising rights which the Constitution guarantees, my husband has been incarcerated in jail. Not only my prayers, but the prayers of all good people of both sexes, will follow him in his prison cell. I shall not speak unkindly of the man who has sought to degrade my husband and who has brought unhappiness upon two families. But as the principal editor and the local editor have both been arrested, and no freeman is allowed to speak through the columns of the Avalanche, there is no other alternative left but for me to assume the position forced upon me by the persecution and misfortunes which despotism always brings upon the noble and the brave. A preconcerted arrangment has been made to crush out the paper. It cannot be done. During the incarceration of my husband and Mr. Campbell, I am constrained to take charge of the paper, and can be found at the editorial rooms of the Avalanche, and if men are not brave enough to defend their rights and their liberties, I trust the paper, of the next ten days, will prove that there is one woman ready to defend the rights and the liberties which weak and timid men seem disposed to yield.

"FANNY B. GALLAWAY."

The latest phase of the above is that Judge Hunter, of the Criminal Court at Memphis, who has distinguished himself by the incarceration of editors in that city, has adjourned the court on the double pretext that it is impossible to enforce his decisions and that his life has been endangered. The Memphis Press ridicule alike his actions and his assertions. The main cause of his closing the court appears to have been the release of the editors of the Memphis Avalanche on a writ of habeas corpus, which release he declares was illegal.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE—OPPOSITION BY RADICAL CONGRESSMEN.

The proceedings in Congress, on yesterday, were made unusually interesting by the debate on Mr. Broomall's bill to guarantee to each State a "republican form of government," or, in plainer language, to force negro suffrage upon the loyal States, whether they desire it or not. The bill, it will be remembered, was introduced into the House last year, and was brought up yesterday morning by a motion to reconsider the vote which referred it to the Judiciary Committee. Opposition from the Democratic members was to be expected, but it was scarcely to be supposed that, in the face of their policy towards the Southern States, Radicals would be found in a position of antagonism to this fundamental principle of their party. And yet such was the case. Passing by the remarks made in support of the bill, and against it by the democrats, as being neither surprising nor unexpected, we will call attention to the position assumed by two of the most prominent representatives on the radical side of the House. Mr. Lawrence, of Pennsylvania, declared that "nine out of every ten republicans" in his district sustained the recent decision of Judge Agnew, of his State, against the right of negroes to seats in railroad cars provided for white persons. But his opposition was not so decided as that of Mr. Spalding, of Ohio, who—after Mr Stevens had made a rather long speech in support of the measure, and had offered a substitute for the bill, providing that all, males, regardless of color, shall "vote upon all national questions,"—came out in strong and emphatic language against it. Mr. Spalding declared that although he had voted in favor of universal suffrage, his State had, by forty thousand majority, refused to give the negro the vote, and so long as the Constitution of Ohio limited the elective franchise to the whites, he would suffer his "right arm to drop from its socket sooner than vote for any such bill as that now before the House." The honorable gentlemen declared that it "cuts directly across the constitution of the United States," and wound up by expressing his belief that the passage of the bill, at this hour, would be "the death knell of our hopes as a political party in the Presidential contest." The motion to reconsider was finally withdrawn and the bill referred to the Judiciary Committee.—N. Y. Herald, 19th.

IMPEACHMENT PREPARATIONS.—The President spends much time with his counsel on the subject of the impeachment trial.—Messrs. Stanbery, Black, and Curtis had a long consultation with him to-day at the Executive mansion. The impeachment managers were to day engaged in the examination of witnesses. Having heard that a claim agent had received $200 on a requisition from Adjutant General Thomas as Secretary of War, they summoned the agent before them. His testimony shows that such was not the fact. It appeared, however, that a claim for that amount was rejected by Secretary Stanton, but allowed by Gen. Grant, when the latter was acting as Secretary pending the suspension of Mr. Stanton, and not until now was the money ready to be paid.

There is no authority for any statement as to what the President will do. Mr. Black denies that he ever said Mr. Johnson would be convicted. Of the same kidney is the allegation that the President has considered the proposition to resign, or that he ever intimated to any one such a purpose.—Wash. Corres.

ROSADALIS.—Dr. J. J. Lawrence has removed from Wilson and is now settled in Baltimore, where he is better enabled to dispense his great medicine.

Rosadalis has justly acquired an immense reputation, and sustained, as it is, by the endorsement of leading physicians in the country, none can now doubt its efficacy.—We call the attention of the afflicted to the advertisement in another column.

ALABAMA TO BE LET ALONE.—Republican Congressmen have abandoned the idea of passing a bill for the admission of Alabama provides for the adoption of a Constitution by the voters of that State, in pursuance of the existing reconstruction acts.—Wash. Cor. Sun.

It is well ascertained that Chase, Nelson, Grier, Clifford, Davis, and Field, believe the reconstruction acts unconstitutional, and that Swayne and Miller alone sustain them.—Baltimore Gazette.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 21, P. M.

HOUSE.—The session was devoted to debate.

SENATE.—The Post Office appropriation bill, with unimportant amendments, passed.

The Army appropriation passed, with unimportant amendments.

An effort to reduce the regular army to 30,000 was defeated.

Drake endeavored, ineffectually, to push his new rule nominating the Chief Justice as "Mr. President."

Anthony opposed it facetiously. Drake's peroration. Drake was called to order by Grimes.—Wade declared Drake in order. Salisbury moved an amendment, that the Chief Justice appear without his robes.

[Mr. Chase has heretofore appeared in the Senate, clothed in the regalia of his high office.]

Drake was finally laughed down. Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 21, P. M.

The President and Gen. Hancock had a prolonged interview.

One hundred thousand new National Bank notes have been shipped to New Orleans.

A small party of Virginia Radicals have been complaining to Senators of Gen. Schofield. They have been referred to Grant. Particulars not transpired.

The United States Consul at Zangibar, on the 10th of November, writes the State Department: "There is still room for hope that Dr. Livingston is alive."

In a loose discussion in the House, on the bill muzzling the Supreme Court, Woodward characterized the action of the House as indecent.

Maynard, of Tennessee, said: "Indecency was on the part of the Supreme Court, which seeks to transcend its legitimate sphere and decide political questions."

Process was issued from the Supreme Court against Grant, Meade, Ruger and Rockwell, returnable the 1st. of December next, to answer in the Georgia case. The Court retains under advisement the question of preliminary injunction against these parties.

The Impeachment Managers have summoned twenty-five witnesses.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"

Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

Canvassers for the State at Large.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, Canvassers for the State at large. NEW ARRANGEMENT
FOR THE SENTINEL.
Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell,
Sexton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race in the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
